Live Albums aren't really essential but sometimes they are... With over 15 years of musical history ATTAQUE 77 not only can but must do it! The year 1987 gave birth to the most influential and biggest Argentinean Punk Rock band - exactly 10 years after the generation of the Sex Pistols, Stiff Little Fingers, The Clash, The Ramones & Co. had revolutionized the (music-)world! Hence the "77" in their name because they have their obvious roots in that time. The first song to be released by ATTAQUE 77 was on the legendary Argentinean Punk Rock Compilation from 1988: Invasion 88! And lots has happened since then...

Their songs have been honest, straight and aggressive from the very beginning. ATTAQUE 77 soon became the voice of a whole generation of frustrated Argentinean kids. What was already emerging with the first release took almost frightening dimensions with their 2nd album: triple platinum and regular shows in front of over 10.000 fans! It's impressive enough to say that they've gotten: 1 triple platinum, 2 double platinum, 1 platinum as well as 10 golden albums in Latin-America! To shorten the story of all the different golden and platinum records they've gotten ever since: before they started their world tour they had already sold over 1 Million albums!

In the mid-nineties the 4 punks from Buenos Aires started to aim for the rest of the world. They successfully toured almost the entire American continent: USA, Mexico, Peru, Uruguay, Chile, Costa Rica, Panama and Paraguay. They are even one of the few bands that can claim to have made it in Brazil! ATTQUE 77 came over to play the old world for the first time in the year 2000. And ATTAQUE 77 wouldn't be ATTAQUE 77 if that episode didn't have a happy-end either. Übersee Records got them over to Europe again in 2003 and the club tour exceeded all expectations.

12 albums and now 15 years later ATTAQUE 77 are a lot more than just a steady part of the Latin-American music-scene and there's no doubt that Europe will also "get used" to them as well! Once they are done with the "15th anniversary world tour" they will have played well over 1400 shows in 17 countries all over the planet! This fantastic live album "Trapos" is accompanying their 15th anniversary world tour and was recorded at Obras Stadium, Buenos Aires, with 25.000 enthusiastic fans. "Trapos" is the Spanish word for the countless banners made by the devoted fans as a tribute to the band in the course of their history. The artwork and the CD itself is merely a tribute from the band to their loyal crowd all! Listen to their greatest hits, feel the incredible live atmosphere they create together with their fanatic fans. Capture the vital spirit from a world where punk rock is still the outcry of a "lost generation": desperate and angry!
Viva A77AQUE!
